FOREWORD

by way of explanation;

The proposed game between the S.S.M.F.L. and the Amateur Association on Monday, June 7th has been cancelled. A special meeting of the league on Wednesday, May 26th voted to withdraw from the game. Unfortunately, last week's Gazette had already been printed before the decision was reached and the foreword could not be amended.

Upsets galore. That's what the competition requires — and it requires them urgently.

After only seven games the premiership table has been snapped in two with the fourth side, Kelmescott, holding a decisive eight point break over their nearest challengers, Mandurah and Kwinana.

And the fracture could worsen today if games go according to form. Gosnells and Kenwick will be favoured to defeat Kwinana and Mandurah respectively and if Kelmescott were to upset Maddington, the rest of the qualifying rounds would be little more than a formality.

The onus is now squarely on the shoulders of the sides outside the four to start winning games, elevate their own positions on the ladder and in so doing, stimulate the competition.

It won't be easy because the top four sides are all playing first class football. Kenwick and Kelmescott in particular, are to be commended. They both finished outside the four last season but constructive recruiting makes them look definite finals prospects, even at this early stage.

Some of the lower clubs obviously lack depth on the field. Some urgent recruiting needs to be done and now is an opportune time as League clubs start to discard players. The problem then becomes a monetary one.

If the money is not available, it looks like being a bleak winter. If it is available the respective club committees have a responsibility to their clubs and the league to take stock.

Time is fast running out for clubs outside the four to look at themselves, analyse their problems and most importantly react to them.

If they do that, and results are still not forthcoming, there is no cause for criticism but the league can do without non-contributors.

TODAY'S GAMES:

Kwinana have been savagely hit by injuries this season and their task of defeating Gosnells at MEDINA OVAL looks more than difficult. Until Kevin Frazer can regroup and reinforce his troops, talented sides such as the Hawks will steal the points from them.

Maddington v's Kelmescott at MADDINGTON OVAL — the game of the season to date? Eddie Donnes has shown plenty of imagination to cover Kelmescott's deficiencies and Maddington look as though they'll be tested by players and not grounds for the first time. But look at their side — professional footballers who will relish the challenge and should repel it.

Kalamunda gave their best performance of the season last week and if Canning suffer a second half fadeout again the Kougars could embarrass them at WYONG OVAL. Kalamunda have the ability to kick a winning score in this game — it's a matter of whether they can restrict Canning. The Tigers in a close one.

Thornlie's return to form last week was matched by Armadale's lion-hearted performance against Maddington and their clash at THORNIE OVAL should be a spirited one. Armadale should enjoy a centreline supremacy that will ensure sufficient scoring opportunities.

Mandurah are one side who can inject new life into the competition but they will have to defeat Kenwick at MILLS PARK to do it. Kenwick are playing well and John Risely and Kevin Dale represent a decided height advantage that Mandurah may not be able to counter.

TALK OF BULL

Although two wins were recorded by the club the league team's performance was not up to usual standard. The smaller oval and uneven surface seemed to unsettle most of the players.

The best in the league team were Paul Mountain who roved brilliantly all day. Trevor Tregear, strong performance at centre half forward. Colin Walker, never beaten in the ruck and Rod Mohr unbeatable at full back.

The Seconds again produced another good performance where they ran out the easiest of winners against Armadale. This seconds team are continually producing good performances and any one of a dozen of these players could make our league team at any time. Best players were Dave Hayden (improving each week), Alan Banks (pressing for roving berth in league side), Mark Platell (must be given opportunity in league side soon)

SOCIAL SIDE:

We have three big social events over the next two months and would like all the support from players and supporters.

Sunday June 6th — "Happy Sunday Morning" with the Prankstars, Clem Croft and Marina.

Friday June 18th — "Wishbone Cabaret" This will be held in our licensed premises.

Friday July 16th — "Bulls Ball" This will be a Chicken and Champagne night at the South Perth Civic Centre. Tickets will be $20 per double. This will be a most enjoyable evening so start organizing your party now.

Tickets for any of these events can be obtained from Gary Maskiell or any committee member.

PJA

THE HAWKS

The reserve side set a wonderful example for our league team to follow, with their overwhelming victory over Kalamunda last Sunday. Their team effort was exemplary with all players pulling their weight in every department. Best players for the reserves were Steve Moore at full forward, Murray James and Lee Bain who both played on the ball. Deserved congratulations to all players of the reserve team.

The reserves game against Kalamunda also saw Merv Jennings play his 100th game and Len Millstead play his 50th. Congratulations to both players from all those associated with the club.

Best players in the league team were Norm Barratt who put in a tireless display for four quarters and Sid Websdale whose perserverance is at last paying dividends.

We are looking for a 100% improved performance in today's game against Kwinana. We know we have the ability to win and win well all we need is a concerted effort over four quarters.

SPECIAL NOTES:

As a matter of interest for all those following the progress of the Gosnells Football and Sportsmen's Club's development. Our loan application for the proposed club rooms extension has been approved in principle by the Gosnells Town Council.

SOCIAL NOTES:

We remind you to secure your tickets for the Club's $500 Bonanza Raffle and Barbeque Night which will be held on June 5. Tickets available from Frank Soshacki or any of the committee.

KALAMUNDA

Well done Kalamunda, this is the type of football you are capable of. We took the game right up to Gosnells, only poor placements of kicking to forwards let us down. Forget the ballyhoo of "we want more players" — we have a team that can win. I repeat again attitudes are the only weakness we have.

Great game Ian Price and Phil Hayes, had to separate these players. It would not be fair to not put all players in the next best as everyone contributed their share. Congratulations from all supporters. This week is winning week, how about it?

TIGER TALES

Kenwick must be congratulated on their victory over us last weekend. After a brilliant first half of football by both sides, it was our football neighbours who maintained the pressure and recorded a well deserved 8 goal win. Canning again showed that the ability to match most sides in the competition is there, but week after week lapses in concentration are costly as valuable premiership points, causing concern to team selectors and committee alike. However, it's good to be able to compete among the top sides again, remembering that last year we were consistently well beaten. Perseverance by our players will soon see us notching up a string of victories.

Despite the large winning margin recorded against our seconds side last week, their performance was an encouraging one. It should be remembered that the Kenwick seconds side is a top combination and credit must go to our inexperienced seconds players for matching them in the last half of the game. George Russell's goal in the final quarter should give our league forwards something to think about.

Friday July 16 is a date that must be kept free. This is the night of our annual ball, held for the second time at the magnificent Cannington Central complex. Those who attended last year will testify to the excellence of the venue and another tremendous evening is promised.

Tickets will soon be on sale through Terry Freeman or any committeeman.

MIGHTY ROYALS

Any side that expects to become a final four contender let alone have the opportunity to play off in a Grand Final must learn to play 100 minutes of football not just 50 minutes. This is what the Kenwick players must get into their play in every game not just a few. There has been too much effort by coaches, committees and those players who are not getting a game for those forty on Sunday who gave only when it suited them. So let's prove it this week against Mandurah that your place in the side is warranted and not just win but win well when the opportunity arises.

LEAGUE:

The first half of football was a combination of bad errors mixed with some good passages of football. Canning proved a worthy adversary up to this point and held a small lead at the mid-way interval. There were not many good points in this half, however, players to contribute and who did at least try to get some system operating were Kev Wilson, Kim Lotts and Wayne Ogg. The Second half was a different story. Players who in previous games had given us the necessary drive, began to fire — John Risely and "Nipper" Truscott improved their games and started the side into motion. Ralph Martin combined with Brian Thompson to set a winning centre line and gave the back line an attacking avenue. Kenwick started to win the ball away from the centre line through the efforts of Neil Dedman and Kevin Dale and the back line tightened their game and gave very little away. Goals came easier and finally the Royals finished all over Canning in the final term.

SECONDS:

Two quarters of football were sufficient to beat Canning by 120 points, but not good enough when we come up against far fitter sides in the competition. Too many players floated in and out of the game. Exceptions to this were Nick Catalano, who played the wing position to perfection and Neil Bennevenue who gave a solid display at centre half back. The back line had very little work to do but Gordon Fielder and John Oliver gave nothing away when the ball did go down there, while up forward Graham Nicholas lead well and kicked some fine goals. Other worthy mentions — Tom Quinn (slowly regaining form) and Ken Staines who through himself into the game on occasions.

Congratulations to Maxine and Graham Walker on the birth of their first child — a Boy Andrew Francis — Good Stuff Piglet.

SOCIAL NOTES:

Last week's cabaret was nothing short of pathetic — no more said — let's make certain the ball is a huge success. Final week to purchase your tickets and let's have the Butts and Money back as soon as possible.

Don't you be the one to let the Club down!

THE SEASIDERS

The best news from last week was the return of Mandurah's Seconds to the winning list when they defeated Thornlie 11.10 to 8.14 at Rushton Park. In the first half the Thornlie team had the advantage, but after the half time break Mandurah began to play determined football. The team was strengthened by the return of Mark Matison, Don Skipworth and Mal Hicks who added depth to the attack. Best players for the team were Bill Doy, Mark Hookway and Dave Ellis.

However, the result of the main game did not cause as much joy, with the defeat of Mandurah by Thornlie 20.17 to 14.11. Mandurah began well and had the first goal on the scoreboard. However, Thornlie soon settled down and by quarter time they were leading Mandurah by 1 goal. From then on Thornlie strengthened their position and at three quarter time they had a comfortable lead of 31 points. The beginning of the fourth quarter saw Mandurah open with a strong burst of football. Two very quick goals were scored and then a third a little later and it appeared that the spectators were set to see an exciting fight back in this quarter.

However, it was not to be. Thornlie steadied and fought off this attack by Mandurah with some determined play. They finished the quarter very strongly over a dispirited Mandurah side. The main weakness of Mandurah was in their forward line. It was unfortunate that Geoff Rees who usually plays at centre half forward was unable to play after being picked in the team. Although Mandurah was often in attack, weak forward play meant that these opportunities were not capitalised on.

Trevor Hathaway played very well in the ruck and Mandurah won well in this division when he was on the ball, but he was not supported by many other team members. Murray Jones, playing his fiftieth game, played brilliantly on the wing and the ever reliable Terry Sullivan also put in a very good game.

The Shacks Award, donated by Shacks Menswear, was won by Murray Jones, who also won the coaches award. The Business Men's Award, which is donated by six local business men, went to Trevor Hathaway.

This week we meet Kenwick at Kenwick. We must prove that we can win away from home and we desperately need a win today. So we really must pull up the proverbial socks and get into it.

SOCIAL NOTES:

The cabaret on Friday was a great success, thoroughly enjoyed by all who attended. Let's just hope everyone has recovered by today.

DEMONS DIGEST

'NOT FOR NIX - IN '76!'

Well, both league and reserves were beaten by Maddington last week. But it was great to see a change in attitude by all players and congratulations in the way the two games were played out for 100 minutes. Welcome back to Ernie Dingo and Ken Thorne to the reserves side last week — you were the two best on the ground — also well done Tony De Wolfe and Peter Miller.

The League side gave supporters of the club a new hope. They showed that they can combine and produce a brand of football that can match the best. What about it fella's? After last week, lets go on with it and take those four points today. Best for the league last week were Garry Greer, Max and Peter Van Helden, a great effort also by Matt O'Mara and Mick Bingham.

On Friday 21st May at our player's tea and games night, it was really disappointing to see so few of our players turn up. I can only repeat the words of several of our committee, and our coach, that if we are ever going to succeed we must be a unit — that means doing everything together — training included.

Tickets for the mid-season cabaret to be held on July 3rd at the Kelmscott Hall are now on sale from our Social Club Committee Members.

THE KNIGHTS NOTES

At the moment the club is in a precarious position. We are two full games out of the four with two hard ones to come. Players are trying hard on the field, but our game is not clicking at the moment. Perhaps a change in attitude towards training may see an improvement. Remember, Gosnells is the only club in the league we haven't defeated.

Congratulations to Jennie and Brett Butler on the birth of their son.

Tickets are now available in the car raffle. Prizes are a Ford Escort X.L., a 22" Colour Television set and $500 worth of Hi Fi Equipment. At $5.00 each, these tickets are very good value and they may be purchased over a five week period at $1.00 per week.

SOCIAL NOTES:

Don't forget the Ball next Friday night. Some tickets are still available and this promises to be an excellent night. The band is J.T. and the Jazzmen and the ticket price of $17 a double includes a buffet meal, beer and table wines.

THE BULLDOGS

A 99% effort in both league and reserves enabled the Bulldogs to score a comfortable double over Kwinana last Sunday.

The league side in particular put together four quarters of consistent, intelligent football to reveal their true potential.

This week's "match of the day" against Maddington will see the Dogs in front of the Bulls.

Welcome inclusions to our league ranks last Sunday were Brian Andrijich and Paul Vasoli. Brian's strong bullocking play added strength to the following division. Paul Vasoli combined well with old team mates, Chris Parsons and Ray Witt in creating an unbeatable avenue of attack. Ray Witt capped off the brilliant mid-field play by slamming home 8 well deserved goals.

Rover Billy Woodhams was a busy player all day and provided many opportunities. Kim Turner at half-back was a thorn in Kwinana's side and put in another fine performance.

In the reserves another solid performance by Legs Scari, ably backed up by Greg Walker paved the way for their win. "Basil" Hansen at centre-half forward provided the main road for attack.
